

Welcome to another week of learning and fun at Blackhall!

Monday, 21st – Friday, 25th August

We are going to DREAM in Colour together!

What Drama, Art, Music or Dance will you explore in colour?

Monday, 21st August is Poet's Day!

- Let's pay tribute to the great art of poetry and celebrate this literary form in every way.
- A good poem is one that tackles a big idea.
- A good poem can also give your reader has a strong emotional reaction.
- Have a go at writing one today!

Chippy is composing a poem for you.

Tuesday, 22nd August is Eat a Peach Day

- Do you like peaches?
- Peaches have lots of health benefits, including promoting brain health!
- What else can you find out about peaches?

Wednesday, 23rd August is Sponge Cake Day.

- The sponge cake is light, fluffy, sweet and delicious.
- It is cake that looks like a sponge!
- Try making your own sponge cake at home.

Wednesday, 23rd August

- Bingo Balls today!
- Numbers 2 and 12 will be meeting with Mr Gardner or Mrs Martin today.

Thursday, 24th August is Vesuvius Day.

- Vesuvius is in Naples, Italy
- It is one of history's deadliest volcanoes and is still active today.
- Mount Etna is another volcano in Italy and it erupted this summer!

Friday, 25th August is Kiss and Make Up Day.

- This is just an expression..!
- Let go of petty grudges and drawn-out fights.
- It's a good way to start our new term!

Have a brilliant weekend and we will see you next week!
