

Welcome to the first week of our new term at Blackhall!

Tuesday, 24th Friday, 27th October

Ruby in P6 had a birthday last week.
And look who was there to sing Happy Birthday??!!!

David Walliams!!

Dance Competition Winners!

- Ava and Lucy won in the Duet category at a dance competition in Dundee!
- Well done!!

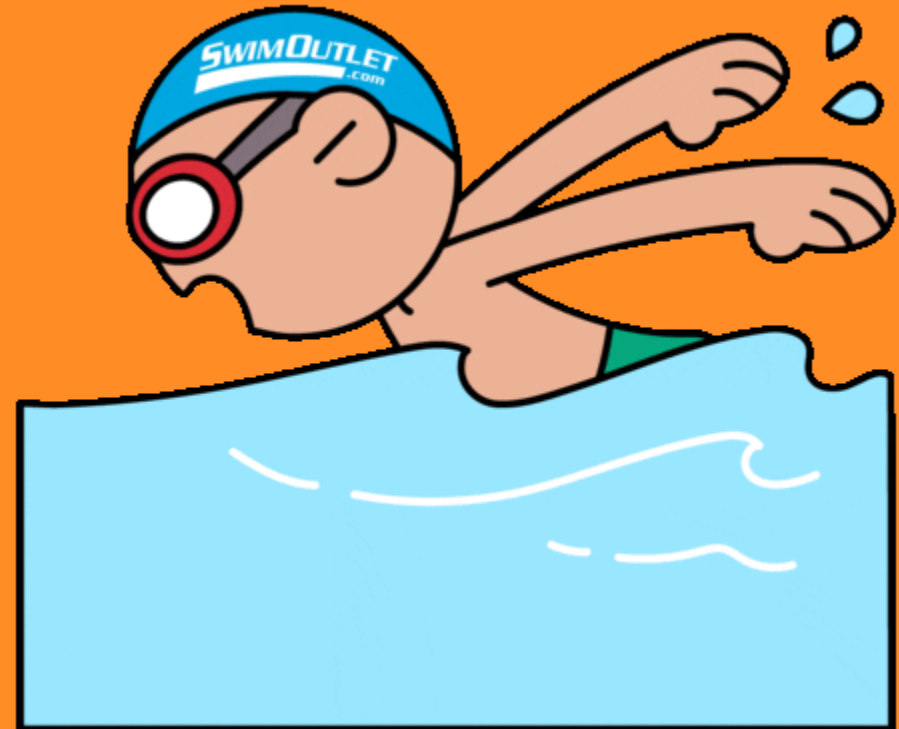

Tuesday, 24th October is United Nations Day!

- In 1945 the foundational treaty of the United Nations came into effect,
- The United Nations create co-operation between all the governments of the world.
- Its original intent was to prevent another war like World War II from happening again.

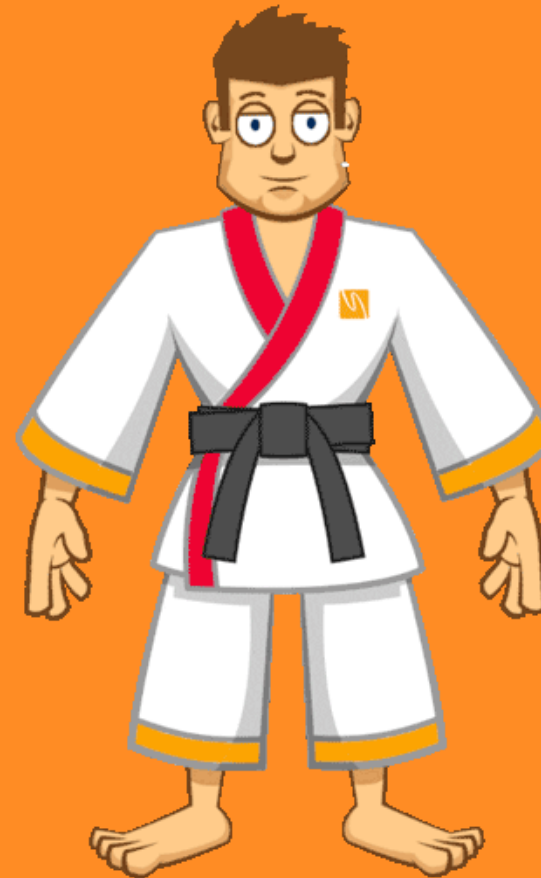

Tuesday, 24th October

- P5B pupils continue swimming lessons this morning.
- Have fun!

Tuesday, 24th October

- Karate Club before school this morning.
- 8am in the small hall.

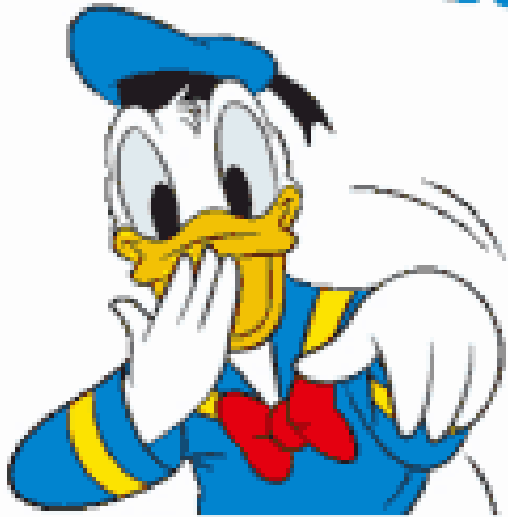

Wednesday, 25th October is World Opera Day

- Opera is a style of musical performance that is more than 400 years old.
- In Opera, all words in the play are sung, rather than spoken.
- Can you name some famous opera houses in the world?

Wednesday, 25th October

Hey listen!

- P7D pupils are off to a Listening Workshop today.
- Pardon..?

A LISTENING WORKSHOP!

Wednesday, 25th October

- Pupil Council Meeting with Mrs Martin today at 10am.
- It's your school.
- What do you want your rep to share?

Wednesday, 25th October

- Bingo Balls 10 and 13:
- Come and talk to Mr Gardner and Mrs Martin about your learning.

Thursday, 26thth October is Howl at the Moon Day

Wolves do howl at night – but it's not really directed at the moon. Howling at the moon can represent breaking free from tradition. Have a howl tonight and see how you feel!

Thursday, 26th October

P6 and P7 have running club this lunchtime with Mr Gardner, Ms Trail and Ms Mitchell. Have fun in the park!

Friday, 26th October is Frankenstein Friday!

- In 1818, Mary Shelley, her husband and some friends wanted to see who could write the scariest story.
- Mary Shelley wrote the story of Dr Frankenstein and his monster.
- Her story went on to be a classic.
- Do you know the story?

Friday, 27th October

Hallowe'en Parties after school today!!

Have you got your costume??

See you there!

Have a spooky weekend!
Have fun and be safe!

