

Welcome to another week of learning and fun at Blackhall!

Monday, 11th - Friday, 15th December

Christmas Parties start this Week!
Have some festive fun!

Monday, 11th December is International Mountain Day

- We are lucky enough to live in a city with its very own mountain – Arthur's Seat!
- Well, it's really just a hill but Robert Louis Stevenson called it, "a mountain in virtue of its bold design."
- What other Mountain Facts can you gather today??

Tuesday, 12th December

- P5P pupils are off for more swimming lessons this morning.
- Have fun!

Tuesday, 12th December

- Karate Club before school this morning.
- 8am in the small hall.

Tuesday, 12th December is National Poinsettia Day

- This flower started with the Aztecs and was thought to be a gift from the gods.
- It was then used in Christian festivals about Christmas and we now recognise it as a flower we see at this time of year.

Tuesday, 12th December

- Rugby today for P6 and P7 in the small hall.
- Enjoy!

Wednesday, 13th December is Day of the Horse!

- Whether galloping through fields or performing intricate moves, horses inspire with their beauty and spirit.
- Can you name any famous horses?

Thursday, 14th December is Sustainable Entrepreneurship Day

- How many of our P5 enterprise projects were sustainable?
- Did that influence your purchase?
- Why is it important to make businesses sustainable?

Thursday, 14th December

- Let's all get together for assembly and some singing!
- See you in the Big Hall at 11:00am.

Thursday, 14th December

P6 and P7 have running club this lunchtime with Mr
Gardner, Ms Trail
and Ms Mitchell.
Have fun in the park!

Friday, 15th December is Ugly Christmas Jumper Day

- I don't know what they're talking about...

Friday, 15th December

- Welcome to our P1 Parents, Carers, Families and Friends!
- It's the P1 Nativity!
- I wonder if Mary and Joseph will find a room??

Have a great weekend!
